Auto Rates on the Rise

Why are Auto prices rising at the fastest rate in almost 13 years?

- Unsafe Driving Behavior
- More Drivers on the Road
- High Claims Payouts due to.....

According to the Foundation for Traffic Safety, 87% of drivers engage in at least one risky behavior while behind the wheel - mainly cell phone use. Distracted drivers cause severe and sometimes fatal accidents.

People are on the road more thanks to cheaper gasoline but this also means they are getting into more accidents which leads to higher rates.

Finally, the size of claims or "claims severity" has gone up due to rising costs for medical care and car repair.

Be assured that we've got you covered at Bene'-Kelly Insurance. We review your policies, look for the most competitive rates, and always try to find ways to help with your premium.

News Around the Office
